Preamble

The Board permits pupil contact with candidates for political office where this contact has direct relevance and alignment to curricular objectives, as determined by the teacher.

Application

1. Where curricular objectives allow, direct classroom involvement of candidates for political office should present a balanced viewpoint.
2. Where a candidate for political office has direct contact with pupils, the teacher shall inform the principal and parents in advance, outlining curricular outcomes.
3. If a parent requests that a pupil opt out of planned contact with candidates for political office, this request shall be granted with no penalty to the pupil.
4. Requests by persons seeking political office for permission to present or distribute information to pupils shall not be granted.
