Application

The Director or designate may offer employment and engage the services of a teacher on behalf of the Board in accordance with The Act.

The Director or designate may offer employment and engage the services of education support professional staff, custodial staff or maintenance staff on behalf of the Board.

In the event that a provincial jurisdiction is declared "in dispute" or in any other development where school boards are requested by some provincial organization not to engage teachers, the Director or designate is authorized to continue to offer employment to teachers to meet the needs of the school division, unless instructed to the contrary by the Board.
