Preamble

The Regina Catholic School Division (RCSD) believes that all staff demonstrates leadership; however, leadership through positions of higher responsibility requires specific skills, knowledge, and attitudes. Catholic administrative leadership is best characterized as service to Church, community, students, staff, parents, and parish, while recognizing the life and teachings of Jesus Christ as the model for all Catholic leaders.

RCSD recognizes that the employment and retention of qualified staff in positions of added responsibility are essential for the delivery of high quality programs for students. Individuals in positions of added responsibility provide support and leadership for school division staff. They further enhance the school division vision, mission, and belief statements, and unity with teachings of the Church.
