

Students 9000 Online School Sponsorship	Administrative Application
	Last Reviewed /Approved on:	November 20, 2018
	References:	Administrative Application 8100 – Home Based Education Policy 12 – Role of the Director
	Status:	Operational

Application

1. Sponsorship (payment of fees) for online courses offered by the Regina Catholic School Division (RCSD) will be extended to students registered in a high school within the school division;
 - a. if the school timetable cannot accommodate classes required to meet the student's needs (subject to principal's approval), or
 - b. if a student is homebound, or
 - c. if a student is homeschooled, subject to provisions in Administrative Application 8100 – Home Based Education, or
 - d. if a student with a full course load (all periods filled), has an average of 80% or better, and wishes to take one (1) additional online course (subject to principal's approval).
2. Sponsorship for online courses offered by RCSD will not be extended in situations where;
 - a. the student does not have prior permission from the principal, or
 - b. the student wishes to take additional credits beyond five (5) credits in any one semester, unless the student meets the criteria in 1(d).
3. In rare cases, students may require online courses not offered by RCSD.

Sponsorship for these courses will be offered only in cases where the student is so ill that they cannot attend school in the current semester. The request for such sponsorship must be accompanied by a letter from the student's medical specialist and forwarded to the senior administrator responsible for Student Services.

4. Students who drop all in-class high school courses and who remain in an online course must maintain registration within the school division.