

3rd Annual First Ride Program

Regina Catholic Schools in partnership with Regina Public Schools

With over 450 students & Parents in the past 2 years enjoying the experience.

The First Ride Program allows parents/guardians and students the opportunity to ride on a school bus and learn about school bus safety. Trained professionals will be on site to assist young children and their parents in becoming comfortable with their first ride on a school bus.

- No pre-registration required
- Attend session that suits your schedule
- Take a photo of your child boarding the bus
- No cost to attend
- Attend more than one session if your child needs more time to feel comfortable riding the bus

Parents will get the opportunity to photograph their child getting off the bus.

Even if your child only rides the bus for school events this program is meant for you too ☺
