

Top Websites for Digital Citizenship and Digital Safety

 Media Smarts This Canadian website has information for parents and children including tutorials. It presents information about digital issues that parents face as well as the many media issues that raise parental awareness.	 Common Sense Media This comprehensive website includes movies and apps reviews as well digital citizenship curriculum. View an entire curriculum of parent tips, videos and lessons on internet safety with the Parent Media and Technology Education Program.	 YourSphere Parents will find lots of information about family social networking safety articles including ten tips children should know for Social Networking.
 CyberWise Daily News Register for this online news forum that sends relevant information on digital safety right to your inbox every week.	 Connect Safely This website has great information for parents including a Parents' Guide to Facebook.	 Google Family Safety Parents will find a series of lessons to support keeping your children safe on the internet.
 iKeepSafe Parents will find lessons and guides on topics like Facebook, digital literacy, and other safety issues.	 Power To Learn These guided, multimedia activities allow you to examine issues affecting schoolwork, class papers, entertainment activities and online safety. There is a home version for each lesson with a parent guide.	 Digital Tattoo What does your online presence say about you? This is an excellent Canadian site for students to learn about all aspects of digital citizenship. It focuses on the university or senior high school student level.
There are a number of additional resources to encourage family participation including: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Write your own Internet Safety Pledges as a family. 2. View an infographic with a Catholic perspective on digital citizenship and discuss how it relates back to our Catholic faith. 3. Watch a variety of short videos in this digital citizenship video playlist and discuss common issues and topics. 		