Subject: STF Job Action – withdrawal of noon-hour supervision

Dear RCSD Families,

Monday, February 5, 2024, the Saskatchewan Teacher's Federation \(STF\) announced additional job action. On Thursday, February 8, 2024, STF members (teachers, principals and vice-principals) will withdraw noon-hour supervision.

This will affect all our schools in different ways. Your child's school day schedule may change.

For Thursday, February 8, 2024 only:

- Start times will not change.
- Morning transportation will not change.
- All Before & After School Programs will operate only in the morning.
- End times for in-person learning will change for the majority of students.
- Afternoon bus transportation will change. Please expect a drop-off time about 2 hours early.
- The adjusted schedule for the withdrawal of noon-hour supervision includes optional virtual support for students.

Please watch for further communication specific to your school and student programming from your principal this afternoon.

At this time, we expect all schools to operate on regular school day schedules again on Friday, February 9.

The STF will determine any other job action, and we continue to prepare for different possibilities. We will keep you informed through Edsby, email, and our website, www.rcsd.ca.

RCSD's senior administration developed this contingency plan for the withdrawal of noon-hour supervision in consideration of the approximately two hundred supervision spots covered daily by STF members. Our plan was informed by our commitment to the safety of our students and staff, respect for instructional time, and minimizing disruption to families.

Thank you for your understanding and patience.

God bless,
Sean Chase, Regina Catholic Schools Director of Education
