Preamble

The Regina Catholic School Division (RCSD) permits student contact with candidates for political office where such contact has direct relevance and alignment to curricular objectives, as determined by the teacher.

Application

1. Where curricular objectives allow, direct classroom involvement of candidates for political office should present a balanced viewpoint.
2. Where a candidate for political office has direct contact with students, the teacher shall inform the principal and parents in advance, outlining curricular outcomes.
3. If a parent requests that a student opt out of planned contact with candidates for political office, this request shall be granted with no penalty to the student.
4. Requests by persons seeking political office for permission to present or distribute information to students shall not be granted.
