Important Reminders:

- LeBoldus held their annual Academic Awards Night on Thursday. Congratulations to all award recipients. Your dedication to your studies is commendable. If you did not receive an insert with this year's winners please come to the office.
- Jostens' publication of our 2017-2018 yearbook is overdue. We have been assured by the company that the yearbooks will arrive shortly. Thank you for your patience.
- Halloween: All students should be aware that costumes are not required on Wednesday, October 31st. If a student wishes to dress up, all costumes must follow these guidelines:
 - i. Culturally sensitive, safe and appropriate for a Catholic school setting.
 - ii. No fake weapons, knives or hockey sticks are to be used in the costume.
 - iii. Costumes are NOT to emphasize violence; for example, NO WEAPONS or BLOOD-n-GORE.
 - iv. Costumes are to follow our dress code policy in regards to length of dress, shorts and tops.
 - v. Finally, students are to emulate positive role models through what costumes they choose to wear
- LeBoldus' drama production titled Game of Tiaras will run from November 21st to 23rd. Please mark these dates on your calendar.
- As the semester progresses it is vital that parents and students remain aware of any outstanding assignments in their classes. HomeLogic provides real time access to your student's marks and attendance. Please click here for more details on how to get connected. The next outstanding recovery day will be held on November 8th from 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM.
