

RCSD Advanced Placement Computer Science Prep Course Registration Form

This is a non-credit tutorial support offered through Learning Online to aid students in preparing for the Advanced Placement Computer Science Exam. An Advanced Placement Computer Science teacher will guide students through independent online modules as well as provide the opportunity for students to meet as a group in a virtual environment. Students can take this tutorial in addition to a full course load in the second semester.

RCSD students must enroll in the AP Computer Science Preparation Course in order to challenge the Advance Placement Computer Science exam.

Course fee: $40 – approx. (fees will be finalized and charged prior to the start of the semester.)
